“ I met Debbie at line dancing as she watched. She was such a loving, caring person. If I missed a session, she would check to see if I was alright. We texted often and I loved her. I miss her so much.

“ Met Deb and my cousin Fred when I visited Florida. She was a sweet lady and was looking forward to spending more time together, but then we all moved. Wish we had spent more time together. She will be greatly missed. Thought and prayers to her family.

“ Deb and I became friends over her love for animals. Deb and Fred adopted my kitty "Jet" when I realized I couldn't keep him. She and I have been in touch since, sharing our joys and problems over coffee and texts. I will miss you Deb and I wish I had more time with you. Rest easy, my friend.
