Debbie- I lit a yellow candle for you because you were always like Sunshine. You brighten up everyone's day just by walking into a room. You had a heart of gold and will be so missed by everyone. You raised such an amazing son- Blake. You loved being his momma and Rex wife. I'm so thankful that you are no longer suffering and that you are with Jesus. I love you girl.

Debbie, I am so thankful that we became friends so long ago and that I have so many wonderful memories of the years we shared. Remember all those Saturday yard sales we had in your Aunt May's front yard? We sure did love a yard sale. And all the Home Interior parties we went to? Decorating was second nature for you. And so frequently (in the 80's I think) we used to get perms in our long hair that made us look like rock stars? And even though we became a little more settled later in life and we saw each other more infrequently, we could always pick right back up where we had left off. I will miss you but I know your soul lives on. Good-bye my dearest friend.
