“ Debby was my cousin. She and her sister, Dot, lived with my family in Philadelphia right after her Dad passed away. When my family moved to Florida, they all came with us. We lived 2 houses away from us in N Miami Beach. Debby went with me, my mother and dad to Grace Brethren Church in Ft. Lauderdale. They thought she was my sister. Their wedding was unforgettable when Don sang the Hawaiian wedding song to her just before she came down the aisle. So many other memories. See you in heaven Debby.

“ Although many years and miles have separated us, we hold fond memories of our days together in the Fort Lauderdale Grace Brethren Church: in the choir, in the youth group, in Sunday School and other activities. Becky was in your wedding 54 years ago, but then life took us in different directions. It was a joy to reconnect once again in March 2015 while you were still in MD. Finally you retired and moved to SC and we retired and moved to GA, so we had hoped to see you again soon. But the Lord had other plans. We grieve with you that Debby is gone so soon, but rejoice with you that her suffering is over. May the Lord give you & your family comfort and peace.
