What an incredible gift Della was to me, and to the world! I've never met anyone quite like her...so full of life, so spontaneous. She loved people and had a heart as big as the Grande Canyon, which she dearly loved and looked forward to seeing one more time. God had others plans, Della. He has now given you heavenly vistas to enjoy which far surpass the grandeur of our earthly beauty. Thank you for being such a precious friend. How I loved our times spent together...all those chemos, doctor appointments, breakfasts and lunches at The Bagel Cafe. I cherish those memories. You had the most glorious giggle...the quickest wit, and an impressive love of knowledge. You trusted your life to God and lived your life showing His love to others. I look forward to spending eternity with you, my dear friend. Until then, I will remember with great love our time together here on this earth.
