

Delmar Ike Guyton

August 31, 2005

Delmar Ike Guyton, age 59 of Myrtle Beach died Tuesday August 31, 2005 at the Waccamaw Community Hospital. Born May 8, 1946, he was a son of the late Don Burroughs and Daisy Mae Sawyer Guyton. He was the husband of Joan K. Guyton. Mr. Guyton was a Army Veteran of the Vietnam War, he retired from AVX Corporation after 38 years of employment. Surviving in addition to his wife is a stepson James Darren Hucks of St. Petersburg, FL; brother John Henry Guyton and his wife Judy of Conway, sister Frances Singleton of Conway and a number of nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brothers James D. Guyton, William Byron Guyton and Charles Ray Guyton. Private Graveside services will be held at Hillcrest Cemetery, conducted by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. Memorials may be made in his name to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th Av. N., Myrtle Beach, SC 29577 or to the American Lung Association, 1941 Savage Road, Suite 200-A Charleston, SC 29407-4789

Tribute Wall

“ I recently read about the passing of Mr. Delmar Ike Guyton. When someone dies in the prime of his life one may wonder why? What happened to him when he died? Where is he? Will I see him again? This is a time to turn to God's word for comfort and hope for the future. God's word answers these questions and many more that we may have regarding our lost loved ones. Jesus Christ, our Savior taught us through the pages of the Bible and his own life what death is like for humankind. He referred to death as a sleep like state or prolonged rest. At Ecclesiastes 9:5 states: "As for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all." At John 11:11-14 Jesus spoke about the condition of the dead when he learned that his dear friend Lazarus had died. He told his disciples that "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest." The disciples didn't fully understand what Jesus meant, he said, "Lazarus has died." Jesus traveled to Bethany where Lazarus lived and met his mourning sisters Martha and Mary. He himself felt the pain of death for the scriptures tell us, "Jesus gave way to tears." John 11:35 So it is natural to cry and mourn the loss of those we love. Jesus then prayed to his heavenly Father for the power to resurrect Lazarus. John 11:41 Lazarus was resurrected and given back to his loving family and friends. Imagine being next to Martha and Mary when Jesus said, "Lazarus come on out!" The joy is beyond words to describe. The day is coming when Jesus will say, "Delmar, come on out!" There are other examples in the Bible referring to death as a sleep. Acts 7:60 So Delmar is asleep awaiting his resurrection. The word resurrection means literally, "a standing up again". This is a promise from God recorded for us in the Bible that tells us that He will resurrect all those sleeping in death. John 5:28,29 This scripture reads, "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life those who did vile things to a resurrection of judgment." I hope these few scriptures will give you comfort in knowing Delmar is in God's memory, awaiting his resurrection. He is feeling no more pain or suffering. You have friends and family to support you but never underestimate the power of prayer. At James 4:8 Jesus said, "Draw close to God and He will draw close to you.? My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##

October 12, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Guyton family: Please accept my sincere condolences during your time of sorrow. Our families go far back along with those wonderful memories of the Guyton boys and their families. You are in my prayers. In Christ, Tessa Edmondson##imported-begin##Tessa Edmondson##imported-end##

September 15, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Joan We are really sorry for your loss and you are in our prayers. Love you always, Frankie & Shirley##imported-begin##Frankie & Shirley Edwards##imported-end##

September 01, 2005 at 12:00 AM