“ I am so sorry for your loss, Eddie. Delores was a fine woman and loved you very much. She was so appreciative of the articles and videos I did on Gene and the Team Beats and your work as their drummer. She messaged and called to thank me and said how happy you were that your music lived on to be enjoyed by another generation. You were both blessed to have each other. Prayers for the family. I know she is missed.

“ Valerie and Eddie,

I'm so sorry for your loss. I haven't been down in years but when I think of summers as a kid I think of us coming down to Martinsville for our family visits. I always got to spend at least one night at your house and your mom was always so sweet. I pray for your comfort during this difficult time.
