“ Mrs. Marlowe was not only a God fearing woman to me. She and my Aunt Grace had both married Marlowe's. Her son road my bus as a child, sweet kid. She worked with me at WalMart many years ago. She was a dear neighbor when I lived on Hwy 90. Her faith made her strong. She was one tough cookie, the kind of woman I pattern my life after. Haven't seen her lately but know she never changed. God is your refuge dear friend. See you soon.

“ To Rick, Louise, Allen, Brandon and all the rest of the family. I loved this woman very, very much. She was a very good friend to me for all the years I attended Conway Church of God. I have many fond memories of her. Every pastor's dream as no task was too difficult and always willing to do multiple jobs at the church. What an altar worker she was and how she could minister to her Sunday School class. Gave a lot of herself to others. I know she is shouting down those streets of gold and I look forward to seeing her again one day. May God put his arms around you and comfort you all.
