“ Good moring to my wonderful mom who i still miss dearly. I findaly went back to the home place after 11 years it was bitter sweet day broke down just a little it wasnt the same hardly recongnized the place was glad i had my daughter Boogie with me it was the same with her. The mom my rock the glue that held the family together wasnt there. I dont think you would be very pleased with us today. But you will be glad that your baby son Jerome and his family is getting it cleaned up again so you will be proud of that, A out of it all the roses you loved ther is one still surviving . The rose had climbed into a tree and blooming that was a ray of hope that day seeing it still living made me feel happy . The good Lord blessed me that day with the rose you planted there. love you mom your daughter Koren

“ Hey mom sure do miss you.Me and my children Boogie; Mr; and Deesir talk about you frequently. Mom you were the glue that kept us together but since you are not here with us the glue has lost its stickiness. Its not the same without you. But i know you are rejoicing over seeing Harry and Sandy ther with you. Me and my family miss and love you so much, your loving daughter Koren

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4
