“ Mama Dee treated me like one of her own children. I always loved her beautiful hair and admired how stylish she always was. She let us be children, she let us be teenagers, she supported and trusted us to make the right decisions. It was funny having her as a second grade teacher when at home she was Mama Dee. She had the whole class create hand made get well cards for me when I was out sick for a month from school and hand delivered them to my house. There were just so many years and now I think back and wish I could remember every day. For some reason God saw to put her in my life and I am eternally grateful.

“ Always a smile and long black hair worn up in a neat bun, EXCEPT on Halloween. She let her hair down, it hung to her waist, and dressed appropriately for her primary school children. It was to the delight of the children when she handed them candy and they recognized who their Halloween visitor was. She was warm and funny, besides being a great Primary School teacher. Mama Dee! A beautiful woman!
