Surfside Beach.....

Denis Joseph Carroll, known affectionately as “Denis the Menace”, passed away on December 28th, 2023, at the age of 87 in Baltimore, Maryland while vacationing with family for Christmas. He was born on October 1st, 1936, in Newmarket, County Cork, Ireland, to the late John Carroll and Hannah Healy.

Denis’s life was deeply intertwined with that of his loving wife, Maureen. They met on Easter Monday of 1958, married on August 26th, 1961, and celebrated 62 years of marriage. Together their lives were filled with many happy memories of spending time with family, taking care of his home and garden, and enjoying the beauty of Cape Cod.

Denis is survived by his wife Maureen, and their two children Ann Carroll-Salerno and her husband Ralph Salerno and Johanna McDonough and Steven McDonough. He leaves behind his cherished grandchildren, Catherine Sutton, Ryan Folan, Lauren Rexford, and Hannah McDonough, as well as his great-granddaughters Aida Rexford and Brooke Sutton. He was predeceased by his siblings Sean Carroll, Jeremiah Carroll, and Dan Carroll.

He had a career as a skilled carpenter and took great pride in his work. He was also an amazing husband and father who never missed an opportunity to crack a joke. He spent the majority of his life residing in Norwood, Massachusetts, before retiring to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina to enjoy a slower pace of life.

Denis was known for his hard work, sense of humor and kind heart, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. Denis's personality touched the lives of many, and his memory will be cherished forever.

A Service to honor Denis's life will be held at 3:00 PM on Friday, January 12, 2024, at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that contributions be made to St. Jude's Hospital in memory of Denis Joseph Carroll since he donated consistently to this charity for the past 30 years. <http://www.stjude.org> or call 1-800-805-5856.
