“ Denny was the nicest person that I ever knew. He was always smiling and ready to laugh at anyone's joke, whether it was funny or not. He and I were partners when we would play cards against Vivian and Debbie. Whether we won or not, it was always a lot of fun. We were saddened when Denny and Vivian moved to South Carolina a few years ago, but even as our game nights were to end, our friendships would continue. We will miss Denny and his laughter, which was always present. God Bless Denny, and God Bless his family.
