“ Dennis was the best boss I ever had anywhere, but more importantly, he was a true mentor - an example to emulate, which few achieve. We stayed in touch even after he left Zurich, and I will miss him very much. My deepest sympathy to Barb, their sons and families, and to all who knew and loved Dennis.

“ We went to Key West, Fl for New Years this year and Papap and middle son outpaced me and my oldest around the bay in a sea kayak about 2 miles. Totally shocked. He will be missed. Love,

“ I want to extend my sympathy to the McKeivitt family. I worked side by side with Dennis while we both were at Zurich. He was a kind and gentle person; a good man. And, since we both were from the Iron City beer town, we never lost that distinctive Pittsburgh speech twang. I'm shocked by his passing. I know he rides on the wing of an angel to heaven. God Bless.
