“ God bless you, Mink. You were truly one of the good guys. We worked together and were good friends at the Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement in NYC. My deepest sympathies to Deanna. Gone too soon.

“ I met Dennis through Elaine. Elaine and I worked for the same agency and a basketball team I was on needed a rebounder. So enter Dennis. His knees were in bad shape then in the mid 70's. But he liked to play and he played hard. It was a fun team, even won a few games. Whenever we crossed paths it was always enjoyable. My sympathy to his family and friends.

My sympathies to Dennis's daughter and family. Dennis was a sweetheart at St. Mary's and mine for a while. At our last reunion we shared many happy high school memories, in particular our yearbook picture at the UN arranged by Lynn. Dennis was recovering from his back surgery at the time and looking forward to playing basketball again. We were all looking forward to the next...55. I will miss him; we all will.

“I was with Dennis, the night he met the love of his life, Elaine. We were at Timothy's Pub, a great Flyer hangout. It was love ❤️ at first sight. Elaine was with a group of her friends, so Dennis passed the test not only by Elaine but her best friends. It seemed from that night forward Dennis and I still hung out, but Elaine became #1 priority, what a beautiful couple!!! Bob Ciullo
