

Diana Lynn Perez-Miller

September 1, 1968 - December 14, 2025

Diana

The most joyful, positive and loving, beautiful soul, who spent all her energy to make everyone else feel at home.

To say we will miss you is an understatement to say the least.

But we know you are no longer suffering and finally at peace.

We will love you and remember you, for you will be in our hearts forever.

For we know you will be watching over us until the day we are together.

So rest easy mother, wife, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend.

Until the next time in heaven where we'll be together again

“ Diana,
A loving and devoted wife.
A caring, nurturing mother.
A warm and adoring grandmother.
A loyal and faithful friend.
An adventurous, fun-loving soul who sought laughter wherever she went.
She carried the strength of a courageous warrior, yet possessed the gentlest of hearts. Diana lived each day to its fullest, embracing life with grace, joy, and love. Truly one of God's angels, she will be deeply missed, yet never—ever—forgotten.
The gifts you gave us simply by being in our lives have left us forever blessed. I will miss you, Diana, my forever friend.
