

Diane L. Coffey

August 12, 1945 - February 16, 2020

Mrs. Diane L. Coffey, 74, widow of the late Frank A. Reynolds, passed away at her home on Sunday, February 16, 2020 following a brief illness.

Born August 12, 1945 in Long Branch, NJ, she was the daughter of the late Harvey Boyce, Sr. and the late Maria Tomaino Boyce. Diane was a bus driver with New Jersey Public Schools and retired after more than 20 years of service. She and Frank retired to Horry County and lived in Loris.

In addition to her husband and parents, Diane was predeceased by her son, Jace Allen Reynolds. Survivors include her daughter, Stella Onimus-Scarle and her husband Edward; her grandchildren, Crystal MacDonald and her husband Tom, Douglas Scarle and his wife Jackie, Thomas Scarle, Annabella Reynolds, and Cassandra Reynolds; and six great-grandchildren.

No local services are planned.

Please sign the online guest register at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel, is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

KW

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your wonderful Mom & Grandma. Diane was very dear to me and I will miss her greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. May God bless you and keep you in his care! All my love Diane!!

Kala Shaw Whiteside - February 17, 2020 at 09:06 PM

SH

“ my heart goes out to the family with heart felt condolence i made graphic of her son when we became friends she will be loved and missed so many and she is dearly loved by us all

Shirley E Heldreth - February 17, 2020 at 12:54 PM

PC

Bunny sorry for your loss. Well Diane you are on your way to start your new Journey.
Without you I would have never got drunk at 15, I would have never climbed a mountain in Kentucky or collected porcelain dolls, and the motorcycle rides were wild.
Toothpick to you. Thanks for the good times

Patti Cotugno - February 18, 2020 at 04:24 PM