“ You never know what tomorrow brings especially in this curcumstance. The last time that we talked it was a discussion on retirement and what we wanted to do when that day arrived. Dianne touched so many peoples lives in a positive way at her job and her every day life. She continues this even in her passing with the loving gesture of her memorials to be directed to the "Corey Matthew Brooks Memorial Scholarship". Corey's mother and father are family to me but were great friends to the Lewis family. There are also the memories of Dianne and Norwood for the times spent with my sister Linda and her husband Skip along with their crowd of wonderful friends. To Dianne may you rest in peace, to the Lewis family, Linda and I wish to send to you our most sincere sorrow during this time of grief.##imported-begin##Felicia Moore##imported-end##

“ I was raised near Diane, attended public schools with her and always considered her my friend. It was such a shock to hear about her passing. I talked with her before and after her surgery and thought she was doing well. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. Talked with Jody at Sticky Fingers a few weeks ago and spoke with her concerning his Mom. She will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her!
