“ I remember the day I started working at the Library and DI DI came in with Evan. We became instant friends. I miss her dearly. Think of her often. I know she is at peace now. I will always remember her fondly.

“ I put an American Flag here because i have a few memories that connect to this. I remember when you lived here in New York and every time you put up an American flag someone would take it from you. You must've went through 10 American flags in 3 months!! I felt like every month you had to put up a new flag. I love you didi!!
