“ Dick was a very good friend of ours in Ormond Beach Florida. Dick and I would go to the racist together and we had so much fun. I’m going to miss him terribly. I just found out of his passing what a great man he was he and his wife Theo came to our home in Ormond Beach before she passed a wonderful couple indeed and wonderful Christians. I talk to him often but couldn’t reach him in the last little bit, so I started searching and I found what I was wanting to. I cry as I write this I will miss terribly. My husband was a manager With Aig and gulf life. He loved his children and his grandchildren and his great grandchildren told me about him every time we talked he passed away in 2014 but Dick and I still remained close friends. We so enjoyed the races and Daytona Beach. We laughed and laughed and remembered all times I know it’s a great loss for all of his family. I would talk to him even when he went to visit his daughter in the west and his daughter in Myrtle Beach he would tell me about all what was going on. He was on the motorcycle. He said you know I think I’m gonna buy me a new one what a precious man he wants we prayed together. I’m so sorry. I’m also such a good friend. I will miss him until I meet him again and heaven, we always told each other. I love you take care of yourself again I’m so so sorry he’s gone, but he’s in a better place. We talked about so many things in the years past God bless him. He’s where he strived to be. I will still think of him often as I always have what a wonderful man God has got another great man to be there with him. Thank you for letting me write. 🙏🙏❤️
