“ Little over 10 years ago I met Dominic for the 1st time along with his wife, and his sister Sheila and their children. My husband is a cousin to Dominic and Sheila and due to circumstances they were not raised around each other except for very briefly. When we did get to meet them Dominic graciously set up a place for us to stay and then he made a most wonderful chicken and spaghetti dinner that we still have never been able to copy.

To Leeann and his children: We are sorry for your loss. Words can never fill the hole in your hearts during a time like this. Time marches on and the pain of your loss will still be there, sometimes very raw and other times dull. When death comes along, I am reminded of an old hymn, "Does Jesus Care" One of the vs goes like this. Does Jesus care when my heart is pained too deeply for mirth and song. As the burdens press and cares distress, and the way goes weary and long? Refrain: O yes, He cares I know he cares! His heart is touched with my grief. When the days are weary, the long nights dreary, I know my Saviour cares. Love to all Bud and Galenda Wilyat “ Leeann! I was so sorry to hear of your loss! Your family is in my prayers for strength! Know that JESUS said that he would be a friend that would stick closer than a brother! It is possible that in the life to come you can see him again! You are a strong lady and with GODS help you can and will make!
