“ Donald was such a wonderful, funny, lovable soul. It was a pleasure to know him during this past year. He always faced his challenges with a smile and his quick wit, and his stories were a joy to read. I will never forget him or his beautiful family who gave him such love and support. I am sending prayers for God's blessing and strength at this time of sorrow for all those who love Mr. Zazinski.##imported-begin##Chris Z##imported-end##

“ I will pray for the Zazinskis. My sister called me this morning and told me what happened and I was shocked. I will miss Don and will always remember the times me and my sister, Stephanie got to spend over at his house. We grew up best friends with his daughter Christa and it seemed like we went over to their house everyday. He never failed to welcome me and Stephanie and make us happy. He was always doing things for us and I know I will never forget him. I love you all.##imported-begin##christina zeigler##imported-end##

“ I will miss your words of wisdom. You were one of the smartest men I knew. My Dad was always proud of his baby brother and talked about you always. Now you are at peace, no more pain, no more agony. I am sure my father came to take you to the better place you are in right now. This is a poem I found when my dad passed. It has brought a lot of comfort to me in the past 3 years. Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there, I did not die.
