“ I had only met Don about a year ago as a neighbor in Murrells Inlet. I feel blessed I had the opportunity to know him, even if it was only for a short time. Some people pass through your life and have a special impact upon you, and Don has impacted mine. The conversations I've had on his porch with him will never be forgotten, and he has shown me what true courage, strength, and compassion is, even in the hardest of times. My deepest condolences to his wife Andrea and family.###imported-begin##Christopher T Manning###imported-end##
