November 8, 1940 - May 7, 2024

Don Browning, age 83, was called home quickly to be with Jesus on Tuesday, May 7, 2024. He was born in Logan, West Virginia, the son of Ace and Fannie Browning.

His precious family that he leaves behind includes his wife, Debra Browning, his children; Michael Browning, Lisa (Browning) Lammers (Scott), Dawn (Browning) Gerard, (Mike), Steven Potter (Angela), and Joel Potter (Erin); grandchildren, Ashley Amburn (Conner), Zachary Gerard, Jessica Gerard, Jakob Gerard, Brandon Browning (Alexis), Haley Browning, Hunter Lammers, Dalton Lammers, Penny Potter, Claire Potter, Joseph Potter, and Jacob Potter; great-grandchildren, Emilea, Holston, Sutton, Theodore, and Annie; many beloved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by Kaye Browning, the beloved wife of his youth and the mother of his three children, his parents, stepfather, and all of his brothers and sisters.

Don was a loving and compassionate husband to his wife, Deb, for 31 years. He loved and was so very proud of all his family and prayed for them multiple times throughout the day. His hope was that they would all come to know and love Jesus.

He was an independent State Farm Insurance Agent and owner of the Don R. Browning Insurance Agency Inc. serving the greater Lansing, Michigan area for over 30 years.

He was a huge fan of the PGA and enjoyed playing golf, watching golf on tv and from his deck overlooking the 8th fairway. Don loved being on the go; cruises, walks on the beach, or just a Jeep ride to get ice cream. His family and friends will dearly miss his presence in their lives, but they know that they will be reunited with him someday in Heaven with hugs.
