“ I was shocked today when a good friend from NCSU informed about a Co-worker and friend Mr. Donald Butcher and his wife died in an accident. I worked with Donald at the College of Textiles, NCSU many years ago. We enjoyed working as a team and shared so many good things and times. I'm so sorry that both of them died. God Bless their families.

“ I just learned about and was shocked to learn of Don's death. He was a wonderful man and a friend I hadn't seen in many years. He helped me pull the engine out of my grandmothers 1948 Hudson before moving to Conway. We stayed in touch periodically through the years but my heart breaks that I didn't get a chance to spend a moment with him before he left this earth.

Heartfelt condolences to the Butcher family. - Paul Henry, Leesburg VA

“To my fishing buddy Don, may the sun always shine on you, always a southwest breeze, clear waters, and no more sharks. Thanks for all the memories and fun times with You and Regina. Rest in peace...never goodbye but only when we meet again. Save some fish for me.
