“ A golden heart stopped beating, Hard-working hands to rest, God once more proves to us That He only takes the Best. Don, will be remembered and honored by all who knew and were helped by him. My family and co-workers wants to extend their deepest sympathies to his family at this time and to wish them God's Blessings and Comfort. Heaven now has as smile that has been taken from us but in every light that shines from those glorious Carolina skies is just that much brighter, because Don is there.##imported-begin##John Hungler##imported-end##

“ Sara is the only family member who might remember me. I did not know that Don was a minister, but I'm not surprised, having known his wonderful Christian parents. May you draw strength and comfort from our heavenly Father. God bless you in your grief. I know that you do "not grieve as those who have no hope."##imported-begin##Jackie Spears House##imported-end##
