“ We remember Lexi and her dad riding their bikes on Saturday down Main Street in front of American Dental Care where her mama worked every other Saturday when Ray kept her . He loved his daughter with all his heart. Sometimes they had a yard sale when they wanted to get rid of her out grown clothes or toys at his house on Saturday. Fun together. He was teaching her the value of a dollar. He taught her how to ride a bike too and how much he loved her. He will be missed by all who knew him. He was a good dad and a hard worker who loved baseball cards too. Dr murph and Jenny
