“ Jon Paul, it has now been many years since the passing of Donna Jo. I just want you to know that it was truly heartbreaking to know of your loss, and the unspeakable grief you suffered during those dark days and nights so many years ago. I just came across this web page, and I found myself hoping that time has been kind to you, and has healed your wounds. May the memory of your mother's love always shine like a bright Star in the night. And always remember this: "The Stars are the street lights of Eternity."##imported-begin##An old friend who is sorry about the past...##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Donna was a wonderful person and a heck of a woman. She made me an éclair cake for my b-day b/c I was so upset about my mother. She was there for me when my mother died. I only worked with her for a little over a year, but she will truly be missed. I hope she got to spend time with her granddaughter before the end. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Teresa Mitchell##imported-end##
