“ To the Petrik Family: I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a beloved family member is one of life's most difficult experiences. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises to remove. In the Holy Bible, Revelation 21:4 says, 'He will wipe away every tear from (our) eyes, death will be no more, neither mourning nor crying nor pain be anymore. The old order of things has passed away.'" In His great love and mercy, God will restore life to our dead loved ones by means of the resurrection in the near future. (Acts 24:15, John 5:28, 29)For now, may these promises console you and give you hope. You have my deepest sympathy.###imported-begin##Tammy Johnson, Lawton, OK###imported-end##
