

Donna "Skip" Shoemaker

January 3, 1940 - October 27, 2020

Donna "Skip" Shoemaker of Myrtle Beach South Carolina passed away quietly on October 27th, 2020 surrounded by family.

Donna was born January 3rd, 1940 in Bellport Long Island New York to the late Dey and Doris Demarest. After high school graduation Donna enlisted in the United States Air Force. She was married to the late Robert "Bob" Shoemaker on June 21st, 1959. Donna settled in Myrtle Beach in 1975 and pursued a career in golf course management. Donna later became the first female golf course superintendent for the Myrtlewood group at Cane Patch Golf Course. Donna loved the outdoors, animals, was an accomplished softball player, and sang with the Carolina Master Chorale for 30 years. Donna is survived by her sister Dale Scott, (Bill), son Stephen Scott Shoemaker (Patti), four grandchildren, Joshua Shoemaker (Mandi), Danielle Shoemaker (Chad), James Shoemaker (Jessica), Julieann Shoemaker, five great grandchildren, Eden Blanchard, Jameson Shoemaker, Bronson Shoemaker, Fox Blanchard, and Mason Shoemaker. Donna was an excellent role model for her entire family, and everyone was grateful they had met and known her.

In lieu of flowers the family wishes you to consider a donation to St. Frances Animal Center, 125 Ridge Street, Georgetown South Carolina 29440. Phone (843) 546-0780.

“ To the Shoemaker's family... We are so sorry for your loss of a wonderful, beautiful and kindness lady that we can even imagine.. Our family truly thoughts the world of her especially my dad Robert "Bud" Montgomery and mom... There was so many memories they made together from working on the Golf course "Myrtlewood" and "Cane patch" hanging out at the shop having fish fry with their employees and doing a dog training classes together and many more things.. I know she has found her husband , my dad and mom and they are having a grand celebrations together in heaven.. We know it real hard and our thoughts and prayers will be with you all thru this difficult time
