“ Miss Hodge was always so happy and I am sure your home was a wonderful place to grow up. I know that all of you will miss her daily presence, but we can all rejoice in knowing that heaven is an even happier place. My prayers are with you all.

“ So sorry to hear of your Mothers passing. It is terribly hard to lose a parent. I remember going to Baker's Chapel many years ago with my cousin, Sonja. If I am not mistaken, your mother was the Sunday School teacher in one of those little rooms on the front of the church. I always remembered her wearing high heal shoes. My mother, Virginia Lewis Sessions knew your parents very well. She also was friends with Mr. Lonnie and your grandmother. I remember him leading the music at the chapel. If I was there and Mrs. Durant didn't come to play the piano, he would always ask me to play. I loved all those "old" hymns. I have wonderful memories of your family that I will never forget. I will be praying for all the family
