“ Debbie, Your mom by her example taught us "little scouts" about being a woman of grace and beauty. She was also the mom who let me eat more than one cinnamon roll at your house when I came to spend the night because I didn't have to divide a pack with 3 sisters! She treated all of your friends like we were a special, only child and that was a great blessing to me. I know your loss is great and we are praying for you. I am asking God to give you the "treasures in the darkness" that He promises in Isaiah 45:2-3. I pray that even in your midnight sorrow God will reveal Himself to you in a new comforting way and that you will know even more intimately that He is the Father that calls you by name. With deep sympathy for your loss and fondest love for you, Judy Johnson Honeycutt##imported-begin##Judy Johnson Honeycutt##imported-end##
