“ Tracy and Kristen, your mother was such a blessing to my brother, Ed, and all our family appreciated her very much. She was a joy to be around, and Anita and I always enjoyed visiting with her and Ed whenever we were in the Myrtle Beach area. It was also a blessing when they could be with us at Lake Norman for family reunions. May your memories of her enrich your lives through many years to come.

“ I will miss my "sister", Elaine. We traveled together, ate together, played cards together, and sat together at church. She and I had plans, but God had other plans. I know she missed Ed so much, and now she's in heaven where he is. Although we don't understand the reason, we don't need to understand. We just need to accept it and continue to remember the good times we had together. Today we were supposed to be unpacking boxes in your new house...just down the street from me. It makes me sad that it didn't happen as we planned. I hope you knew how much I loved you...as so many did. You will truly be missed!
