“ Andrew, one good thing to come after my dad died was your visits, always making us laugh. I hope you are feeling the support of friends and family right now too. I will always remember your mom from the progressive dinner that I joined with your classmates 20 years ago. She treated each of us so special, and made it a memorable night. And, of course, it was good to see her at Calvary again last year. I will miss her. She was a special lady.

“ Asa, I'm going to miss your mom. She always had an encouraging word from the Lord to share with me. Her smile, let me know that she was happy and wanted to talk. My heartfelt condolences are with you and the family during this difficult time. To know her, was to "Love" her. God bless you and keep God first he's our strength.

“ Janie, Buddy, Asa, Thomas and Andrew, Our heartfelt sympathy to all of you in this time of sorrow. We always have great memories of Ann and her families on both sides. When she was a little girl she, Janie and Buddy used to come over to the Graham house with their Daddy and Mom and we would play in the packhouse. Then after Ann grew up and had a family she lived next to us in the neighborhood so her children grew up with my children. Seems we always had close memories. She was smart, pretty and always so nice. It's been a pleasure to be her friend and neighbor all my life. May God Bless you through this time. And may we all still be friends forever!

“ Buddy and Jeanie, we are so deeply sorry to hear of Ann's passing. Ann was much more than my cousin, she was first my friend and through me, a friend to my wife and family. We had a wonderful and rewarding visit with her recently and shared many happy memories remembering her grandparents and the struggles of growing up on a farm. I treasure every moment I spent with her, every letter she wrote to me, every good thing she said and stood for. We share your grief in these moments but are pleased in the realization that she is now resting in the arms of her Savior, Our deepest heartfelt condolences to all of her loved ones. James and Perlita Singleton and family.
