“ I have precious memories of my friendship with my neighbors, Charles and Dorothy. Dorothy always had words of encouragement for me and always made me laugh when I needed one. I will miss her gentle ways and sharp wit. She was an inspiration to me. She always saw the positive in others and never complained about her medical issues. I will miss you, sweetheart. Keep looking over us until we meet again. Love, Karen Perkola

Dorothy May you enjoy the peace of eternal life She has been fighting one thing after another since the time I met her 14years ago when chuck married our daughter. She was a wonderful mother-in-law to my daughter and a wonderful MiMi to our shared grandchildren. My love and prayers are with your whole family.
