“ My husband(who is now deceased)
& I were introduced to Dot & Warren
About 10 years ago. That moment
Of meeting them was like we had know Each other forever . They took us in Like family & we so much enjoyed
Visiting. & talking with them.I would say They adopted us . They were
A very special couple , devoted to one Another. I don 't think I have ever Had a deep friendship develop in such a short time. Dot & I had a lot in common
In our careers & in our beliefs. Dot Was caring, cordial, a true lady & was such fun to be with. She was
"her own person"
& true to what she believed in
Which was family, her friends, God ,
& her country. Dot loved life. &
People. Things will never be the Same without Dot Eaddy . She was One in a million & I will miss her Forever. She was a very special friend who Lived in a little piece of heaven in her earthly life & now has gone on to
The big heaven.
