“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Paul, Alex and Zach: I am so sorry for your loss of your wife, mother and my friend. We have been friends since we were 16 years old. She was such a precious jewel. She was truly and angel here on earth. And WOW the service was so amazing and honoring to her and her life. Im sure she was smiling and Praising the Lord today because her life was to honor the Lord and she did just that. The days ahead will not be easy but the Lord will help you walk through it all. I love you all so much and you will always be in my thoughts and prayers.I know that my friend truly got her wings today. I will miss you always "Dottie". With all my love, Denise Payton Clardy

“ *I sit. I pray. I love.
Sweet songs come from above.
She sends for memories
The scents of flowers in the breeze.*

*I sit. I pray. I smile.
Let the mind go just awhile.
Breathe in... breathe out...
Blessings so abundant I cannot count.*

*I sit. I pray. I believe.
God's saving grace I need to spread His love as she my friend,
Until one day we'll meet again.

“ Paul, Zach and Alex, your wife and mom was loved by everyone that met her. She was a women that Love God and knew that it was in his time and she left it in his hands. She was taken at a young age - so God needed her for other services. She is now in heaven, no longer in pain, and sitting right by his side. She served him well and with her sweet smile and mother loved shared that knowledge of God with all. God Bless You and be with you during this time. Keep the faith and know that we will meet again.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss ... Dottie was a great friend when we were kids in Floydale ... she loved the Bay City Rollers ... and taught me to love them too. She always had a smile for everyone she met. I found her again on facebook and learned that she was sick. I am sorry that I didn't get to see her in person again .. but heaven just got one sweet angel. I know she will be missed by all who knew her. I will remember her fondly, forever. My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this very hard time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! Dottie was my best friend when we were growing up in Floydale. I have so many great memories of watching the Wizard of Oz with her every year and of swooning over Donny Osmond & Shaun Cassidy together! She was always so very sweet & loving, and I know that never changed! I'm glad we got to touch base through Facebook over the last year, and I know she has left a lasting impression on everyone she ever met!

When I met Dottie, it was not long and we knew that we would be friends. She shared her testimony with me and I felt that God knew I needed a friend, this was Dottie. She is such an inspiration to me in and out of time. I will never forget her. Paul you and Dottie have helped my family through alot and I will surely pray for you and the boys. I share these memories with all my heart

“ To the Green Family:

Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support....And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

*My condolences,
SBA.*

“ Paul, Zach and Alex, our prayers are that God will hold you close and give you comfort knowing that Dottie is safe and Happy with Him. I take comfort in the fact that she is no longer suffering, she really fought a good brave fight, but God saw her pain and said it was time to come home. Bob and I wish we could be there to honor Dottie's life, but know we are with you in spirit.
