“ Dear Donald, Kim, Diane, Denni, and the whole Davis family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this sad time. I loved you wife, mother, grandmother very much! When I was growing up in Sterling Heights, Michigan, Dot was my second mom-always teaching Kim and I about making good decisions. Dot took me to my first World Series Game. Pierced my ears! Don & Dot took Kim & I across country to St. Louis for our senior class trip, so many stories from that trip (instead of us going to boring Daytona Beach). She helped me get through some tough times by treating me like an adult. Helped me with my self esteem by calling me beautiful while going through awkward teen years. When Kim and my children were growing up, Kim and I would meet at Don & Dot's beautiful home in Rochester, Michigan. Dot would always teased Kim she didn't want me and my kids over, once we got there, we laughed, we had such great times together-even with our children driving her nuts-Dot really loved it~deep down in her heart. Dot always amazed me with her dry humor, wit, and knowledge of antiques, which helped me to appreciate my antiques. I used to go to Don & Dot's antique shows. We will sincerely miss you Dot! To my Dearest friend Kim, I'm sorry I'm not with you right now-you are always in my heart! Love the Cook family, Denise, Joe, Jessica and Joey###imported-begin##Denise Cook###imported-end##
