“ I was stunned to hear of Dottie's passing recently. I originally met Dottie, John and her family back in 1992 when they moved next door to me. We became very close over the years, not just neighbors, but very close friends. My best memory is when I "played" Santa for Dottie's sons during Christmas of 1993. I moved out of the area in early 1994, but we continued to maintain our friendship through phone calls, letters, and yearly visits to South Carolina. Unfortunately, as the years progressed, our correspondence grew less frequent, due to family issues, schedules, etc. We hadn't spoke in over a year, and a few weeks ago, decided to try and find my old friends. Long story short, instead of being able to reconnect, I was told this terrible news yesterday. I am deeply saddened at the loss of Dottie, and will be forever grateful to know that she was my friend.##imported-begin##Chris Fazio##imported-end##

“ David and I were stunned by the news of Dottie's death. She was not only my cousin, but a best friend while living in Houston near me. I often think with great affection and pleasure of happy times growing up in Ludlow Falls, Ohio with Dottie, Chris and Jim. Our deepest sympathies to all of you.##imported-begin##Deborah Reed##imported-end##
