“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Jay, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I know you were the love of her life. We have been fortunate to have our mothers for so long. Now they are in heaven with all of our loved ones who have gone before. Everytime I look accross the ditch that is still in back of our house, I think of you. Take care.

“ Jay and Family
So sorry to learn about your mama. Hope all of the things that have to take place during this time goes smoothly. Keep thinking I will see y'all sometimes in Lexington. We live off of Old Cherokee near Lexington Extended Care and I think y'all live on Old Cherokee a little further west. Would love to see y'all sometime. Thoughts and prayers are with y'all as you go through the next few days and beyond.
