“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Slater family.
I had the pleasure to work with Mr. Doug for close to 20 years.
We shared so many days together talking about our families.
His love for all of you was such a blessing for me to hear.
The pride he felt for all his children and the grandchildren, I felt like I knew you all.
More than anything we talked of Miss Brenda and his love and devotion to her.
No greater gift could be found than how he wanted to make sure she was taken care of.
Please know Doug touched my life and made me laugh and consoled me when I struggled.
He was a strong, compassionate, funny, humble man who I will miss always .

“ Sharing a piece of time with your father is a blessing I will cherish for a life time! The kindhearted, sweetest, always had a joke or a interesting fact to tell when I saw him in the office; was heart felt. He had a love for his family that is still a blessing to experience! We send our love to you Mama Cathy and Mama Slater family and friends. From Shawn, Shanelle, & Jojo Williams
