“ As a youngster, I always looked forward to seeing Doug and his siblings when we came for a visit while staying with Grandma Todd. Doug always seemed happy and full of life. I'm glad to hear he played the banjo. His joy and musical talent must have brought so much warmth to those around him. May he rest in peace. I wish his family the best and hope, with time, they find comfort. - Robert Todd (Son of James and Almedia Todd)
