“ You were a womanizer who manipulated and abandoned my young Grandmother. She had a rough life as a single mother, filled with abuse, stress, depression, loneliness, and countless struggles. You abandoned your daughter (my mother). She became a drug addict and is now homeless. I grew up raised by that single Grandmother in all the statistics of a single parent, low income, violent household. You started a long line of trauma and damage, marrying and dumping women just to dupe them so you could sleep around. Truly you were pure garbage. A person who creates and contributes to cycles without responsibility. You never achieved anything great. You are another anonymous nobody in history. But I won't let you die innocent, as you didn't respect the innocence of the living. I spit on your grave.

“ I have just recently found out that my dad, Doyle Edwin "Jimmy Dale" passed away in 2004. I had tried for a lot of years to find him & be reunited with him & my sisters & brothers that I have never met, only to end up at a dead end every time. I just hope that Daddy always knew how much I loved him even though I had not seen him since age 3, for reasons still unknown to me this day. He has & will always be in my heart!!! I hope that one day I can reunite with the rest of my family. I will see my Daddy again one day in Heaven & it will be a glorious & joyful reunion between Father & Daughter. May God Bless our families!###imported-begin##Teresa Dawn Edge###imported-end##
