

Dub Johnston

August 22, 2007

Dub Johnston MYRTLE BEACH | Raymond "Dub" Johnston, 65, a Myrtle Beach resident for 15 years and formerly of Dale City, Virginia, passed away on Wednesday, August 22, 2007, after a courageous battle with cancer. Dub was born in Troutdale, Virginia on June 24, 1942 to the late Raymond E. Johnston and the late Edna M. Johnston. He worked for High's Dairy/Southland Corporation for 35 years. After retiring from Southland, he moved to Myrtle Beach, where he became the HOA Manager of Myrtle Beach Golf and Yacht. Dub worked there for the next 12 years. Dub loved life and the Washington Redskins! He enjoyed many hobbies including karaoke, golf, talking about his grandkids and helping others. Dub even enjoyed working. Dub is survived by his wife of 45 years, Margaret Johnston; his son, Raymond "Jay" Johnston and daughter-in-law, Tracie Johnston of Leonardtown, Maryland; his daughter, Tanya Zinda and son-in-law, Brian Zinda of Dale City, Virginia; his sister, Doni Wilson and brother-in-law, Henry Wilson of Bryantown, Maryland; brother-in-law, Butch Harich of Myrtle Beach; ex-daughter-in-law, Janilyn Johnston of Waldorf, Maryland; six grandchildren, Dawn Zinda, Brady Zinda, Justin Johnston, A.J. Moran, Justin Valentine and Taylor Moore; and many special aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. The family will receive friends at 1 p.m. Saturday, August 25, 2007, at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. Memorial services will follow at 2 p.m. Saturday in the funeral home chapel, with the Rev. Kirk Lawton officiating. Memorial services will also be held at a later date in Dale City, Virginia. An online guest book is available at goldfinchfuneralhome.com. In lieu of flowers, memorials are requested to the American Cancer Society Hope Lodge of Charleston, 269 Calhoun St., Charleston, SC 29401. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Please accept our deepest sympathy. Whenever we saw Dub he always had a smile. We are happy that he liked to share his singing with everyone. He will definitely rest in peace. Kay and Neil##imported-begin##Neil Vetek and Kay Bina##imported-end##

August 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Dub will always be remembered in our home as a great guy who placed his wife and family first, grandchildren were so important to him and he loved being with his family. He helped Ruth with her business, was quick to give counsel when asked and slow to criticize anyone. He will always be remembered as a treasure to our community for his tireless and endless hours, patience and kindness.##imported-begin##Ruth & Gary DeNardo##imported-end##

August 24, 2007 at 12:00 AM