“ I met Al in the 7th grade at Conway Jr. High. As we were seated in alphabetical order, we sat at the same table or at desk next to each other for the next 6 years. We went to the sock shop together and won a cake at the cake walk. We walked the aisle on graduation night next to each other. He was and has remained my best guy friend. We talked a few days ago and planned to get together for lunch soon. I am sad to lose my dear friend. I will miss him but I know Eloise was glad to see him. To Mead and Trey always know how much you were loved and what awesome parents you were blessed with.

“ Al, was such a loving and caring brother-in-law. He truly loved the Lord. He would prove it to me whenever I would call him with a question in the Bible. He could answer it every time. He would paraphrase every word. Mama loved Al's impersonation of Elvis. I truly know that he is with the Lord. I also know that he is with the love of his life, Eloise. A match made on earth and now a match made in heaven. I loved them both and will miss them dearly. God bless the family.
