“ This is the kind of love our God has for us, father love. The kind gentle compassion of a dad who deeply cares for his sons and daughters. Maybe you never had such a dad like that....But you do have such a father. Let God's big hand gently cover yours. With his help even the discouraging scribbles of your life can become a masterpiece! Nothing would delight a father's heart more. I love you daddy, Karen Psalms 103:13##imported-begin##Karen Lavergne##imported-end##

“ *Mr. Earl, I wish I could have met you, but one day I will. I am a friend of Karen's from Louisiana and I have heard alot of good things about you. I just wanted you to know that you raised a beautiful, lovely daughter. She is the sweetest thing God ever sent to me. Well, we will meet one day, until then, your whole family is in my prayers.
