“ Please accept our deepest sympathy in the loss of your precious Eddie. Although we never met Eddie, we knew him through the love so deeply expressed by his sweet mama, Kathy. Kathy is our friend, co worker and also our neighbor, and we have certainly witnessed the steadfast love of a mother and the heartbreak of her loss. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Eddie's wife and three children as well and we pray that you will find comfort and peace in the days and weeks ahead. We can tell from the beautiful video what a special husband, father and son Eddie was. May God be with each of you.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away

“ I did not have the privilege of meeting Eddie in person but I feel I knew him from his mother, Cathy, who adored him. I know he was a loving husband and father, and a devoted son. I also know that he faced his illness as a testimony to us all. He showed us how to face adversity with courage and a very strong faith in God. May God bless Tera, the children, and his sweet mom and give them the courage and peace that they need at this time.

“ I can remember the day we met like it was yesterday, this kid from Brooklyn riding up to #2 school yard with his banana seat bike, probably singing some Beastie Boys song, introduced ourselves and we were instantly friends. He was the truest friend anyone could ask for, he always protected me, was brutally honest. Lol qualities that made him the beautiful person he was. A loving husband and father, he was so proud of the life he built. There may have been many miles between us when he moved to Carolina but he always remained my closest friend. May you rest peacefully now my friend.

“ We used to sit with Eddie at lunch in high school (as southerners we were awed by his accent) and would pester him to say different words in his accent. He always kept us laughing. Such a genuine person. Loved his momma so much. Was a loyal friend. His beautiful smile could make even the hardest heart crack. Everyone loved Eddie. Didn't matter what race or clique you hung out with. It didn't matter to him. My heart aches for his family. This isn't the outcome we wanted but we trust God and His greater purpose for eddies life. And what a full and beautiful life that was. He is one of those people that once you meet them you will never forget. My love and blessings go out to his family. I take so much comfort in knowing we will see him one day.

“ A beautiful tribute to a wonderful person. Always smiling. I have learned that we are suppose to celebrate the life of a person rather than mourn their passing. It's a very hard thing to do when you'd rather them still be will you, here, and not sick. You have all been through so much and we wish things would have turned out differently. We will always have the best of memories of Eddie and send our deepest sympathies.

Sincerely, TerryAnne, Anthony & JoJo
