“Mrs. Fortune was the ultimate hostess. Not a 4th of July goes by that I don't think of her and the gracious way she welcomed our family into her home for several summers in a row. She never sat down all day, but was constantly on the move to make sure our every need was met at her home on the lake. Such a delightful soul and so full of love. She made us feel like family.

Our prayers go out for Ann and Tom and all the family. May God hold you close as you go through these hard days, and may He exchange any tears you have with sweet and funny memories of Edith. We love you.

“ I loved our time together visiting with Joy's Mom at the beach. She was so funny telling us about hummingbirds. We all would go to the dining room to eat dinner where she introduced us to all her friends. Such great memories. She kept me laughing. She will be missed.

*Love, peace and comfort
