“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ To the Bakanic Family:

*May the memories of joy and laughter help carry you through your sorrow. And may the peace that God provides, sustain you.
(Philippians 4:7)*

*My condolences,
SBA.*

“ Von,

My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. I can honestly say I know and understand what you, your father, and the other members of your family went through. We can only hope and pray that our parents have reached a state of peacefulness unmarked by confusion.

*Sincerely,
Ernie Rigney*

“ Edward Bakanic was born the son of an immigrant family, fought for his country in WW II, became the first college graduate in his family and was married for nearly 50 years. He was devoted to his family in a way few people ever achieve. He taught his children how to love deeply. I will miss him everyday.

I'm blowing you a kiss Daddy. I know you will catch it. Love, Vonnie

“ My father was the best father in the world. I will always remember him playing his harmonica. And his favorite song was "It's a Small World". I have so many wonderful memories of him that I do not know where to begin. I will cherish the last kiss I threw to him and he caught it in the air and put it on his cheek. That was one of the last things he did before he died. I LOVE YOU DADDY! ”
