“ Although we do not know your families we would like the you to know we think of you at this time even though we are late finding out the death of your loved one. We research all Wiggins in hopes of one day connection them from the early years, knowing that many settled in other counties other than Marion County where we find many of our Wiggins. If there are any members of your families willing to contact us by email, we would love to hear from you. Again we send you our thoughts of love and prayers go up for Mr. Wiggins families, friends and loved ones. Carley and Helen Lane Wiggins in Dillon Co.
