“ Tammy & Callie, I can't express in words how deeply we miss Ed. We were very blessed to have known such an incredible man and we treasure each and every memory of Ed. We are also very blessed to be able to call him one of our closest and dearest friends. Seeing how caring and giving he was with his family and friends was such an inspiration to us. We miss having those good conversations with him about travel, politics and life in general. We loved Ed dearly. We pray daily for you, Callie and family to find the peace and comfort you need in these days of grief. Please know we are beside you each step of the way. Ed was one in a million! I will always think of him as a kind, Southern gentleman who loved sharing stories of his life in Socastee, SC. It brings us comfort to know that he is now with our Lord and with his parents. We know how much he loved them. Our hopes and prayers for you are that you will have peace surrounding you and that you know we are always here for you. With our deepest sympathies and peace be with you, Ann, Massimo & Chiara##imported-begin##Ann##imported-end##

“ So sorry to read about Mr. Milligan. He was such a joy when he came to see us at Dr. Graham's office. We had many discussions about Callie and my grandson who were the same age. He was such a kind, pleasant and radiant man. He loved his family!! His faith and gentleness was felt by us. He will be greatly missed. May God be ever near to you during this time. “ To The Milligan Family: I wish to express my sincere condolence for the loss of your dear love one. During times like these, hearts are filled with pain and sorrow. However, please find comfort in God's promise found in the Bible at Revelation chapter 21, verse 4. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God take care of you and comfort you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##Hattie Matthews##imported-end##
