“ Ed was the oldest of 8 children in his family. My husband Bob was one of his younger brother's. Bob was 11 years younger but he would help Bob get a job cadding at the golf course when he was a teenager. He always protected his Mom. He had a brother Jimmy that was 3 years younger than him. Jimmy passed away in 2008. They were pretty close when younger in those mischievous years. I only remember Ed seeing him at family functions. He lived in South Carolina for many years. Just wanted to post what I was told by Bob his brother. RIP Ed we will see you again.
